

Project Profile :: Heritage

Imperial War Museum

Client: Imperial War Museum

Scott White and Hookins' Role:

CDM CDM Consultants

Scott White and Hookins has had a framework contract to carry out CDM Consultancy services for the Imperial War Museum at their 5 branches:

- IWM London
- IWM Duxford
- IWM North
- Churchill Museum & Cabinet War Rooms
- HMS Belfast

The Contract commenced on 1 September 2008 and ran for a period of three years until 31 August 2011.

The Contract covers differing types of project, these include:

- Small Exhibition fit out
- Medium to Large Engineering and Construction works.

IWM London

The building which accommodates the Imperial War Museum was formerly the central portion of Bethlem Royal Hospital. Designed by James Lewis, and completed in 1815. Sidney Smith's dome was added in 1846 and contained the chapel.

Projects to date include:

- Crimes against Humanity exhibition
- Terrible Trenches exhibition
- Lord Ashcroft Gallery

IWM Duxford

- Apron Repairs

